

Emotional Wellness Challenge Log

Seven days, one practice added each day, one calm score each night · Module 4, Training 7

How it works

Each day adds one practice; the earlier ones keep running underneath. By day 7 the stack is about 25 minutes across the day. Anchor each practice to something you already do. On a day that falls apart, do the tiny version and tick the box. Miss a day? Do the next one; never double up. Psychosocial practice reduced distress and was associated with higher pregnancy rates in fertility patients (Frederiksen et al., BMJ Open, 2015; Domar et al., Fertility and Sterility, 2011).

Start date: _____ My anchors: meditation after _____ · breathing at _____ · gratitude when _____ · journal with _____

The week

DAY	PRACTICE ADDED (KEEP THE EARLIER ONES)	TINY VERSION	DONE	CALM SCORE 1–10 (SAME TIME EACH EVENING)
1	Meditation — 5 min with the audio	one minute, eyes closed, feet on the floor	☐
2	Breathing — one deliberate practice in a real moment	three sighs	☐
3	Gratitude — the nightly share (partner or self)	one specific thing	☐
4	Journaling — 15 min, one prompt; reread your big why	one line	☐
5	Sleep routine — bath/shower, screens off at 60 min, lights out on time	phone in the kitchen	☐
6	Emotion check-in — name the day's strongest feeling on the wheel; use your coping plan on it	say "of course I feel this"	☐
7	Reflect & share — reflection below; forum post; something restorative that isn't this course	post one line	☐

Calm score: 1 = frayed and flooded · 10 = settled and spacious. Watch for a rising floor, not a high peak.

If the week brings something hard (a test, an appointment, news): the challenge becomes the point. Use the tools on the real thing, log it, reach for your partner, the forum, and professional help if you need it.

Day 7 reflection (30 XP)

My seven calm scores: ____ · lowest this week ____ vs my usual low ____

The practice that moved my score most:

The practice I did flat, "going through the motions" — and whether it helped anyway:

What I did on the hardest day:

The two practices I'll keep daily (Module 7 will build on them):

1. _____
2. _____

Something restorative I did today that had nothing to do with this course:

Share progress (20 XP)

Post your two kept practices and one sentence about your floor. Completing this training unlocks the Module 4 bonus (10 XP). Module 5 (Toxin Elimination and Detox) opens on Day 28.
